Raising the Expenditure Ceiling on Medical care of Workers Under ESI

3588. SHRI SURESH KALMADI:
SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL:

Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether Governemnt have raised the expenditure ceiling on medical care of workers under the Employees State Insurance Scheme as reported in the Hindustan Times of 5th August, 1994;

(b) if so, the details thereof indicating the number of persons insured and beneficiaries likely to be covered under the scheme as well as additional expenditure involving during the current financial year;

(c) whether Government propose to enhance financial assistance to State Governments and are also aware that a great deal of discrepancy has Been noticed between the lists of insured persons maintained by the States and the ESI Corporation; and

(d) if so, in what manner Government propose to solve/tackle this problem and reconcile the discrepancies?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P.A. SANGMA): (a) to (d) Except in Delhi and NOIDA (UP), the responsibility for administration of medical care under the ESI Scheme is vested in the respective State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. In order to enable the State Governments to improve the quality of medical care, the ESI Corporaiton has decided to enhance the ceiling on the expenditure on medical care from Rs. 345/- per I.P. per annum to Rs. 410/- per I.P. per annum w.e.f. 1.4.1994. This would involve an additional expenditure of Rs. 42.34 crores per year. The Scheme covers 2.89 crore beneficiaries including 74.44 lakhs insured persons. There are discrepancies in the figures of LPs maintained by the ESIC and certain State Governments. Necessary action to get the discrepancies reconciled has been initiated.
